

ONLINE STUDENT FEEDBACK SUMMARY

An online student feedback regarding Teaching-Learning and Evaluation was conducted through Google form by the North Bengal St. Xavier's College. Google form link was shared with the students of all the semesters via the Head of respective departments and the students were given a week to submit their response. The feedback was mainly focussed on the teaching methodologies adopted during the academic year 2022-2023.

The students were very satisfied with the teaching methodologies adopted especially with regard to the concept and presentation of the subject matter by the teachers. The teaching methodologies have been rated as interactive, educational, motivational, and with full of values. Students have really appreciated the efforts of the faculty members for providing all necessary support, especially the audio-visual classes and the study materials, along with the academic related information to help students learn and continue their classes throughout. The overall quality of teaching was satisfactory and rated as very effective. The students were also appreciating the tremendous efforts made by library for giving them the multiple opportunities to learn and grow. They were very happy with timely circulation of all university examination related information and also with the infrastructure provided.

Students have suggested to introduce new add-on certificate courses such as communication skill development, foreign languages, travel and tourism, digital marketing, aviation etc. in the coming years.
